Bognor Regis Camera Club is proud to present:

Janey Devine

for her presentation:

The Life (and Death) of a Long Term Project

Having received her RPS Fellowship in 2008, for her imaginative landscape photography, Janey Devine's recent work has focused on a number of social documentay topics. She is a member of Chichester Camera Club and the Focus and Arena photographers' groups. She founded the RPS Documentary (South East) Group and sits on several RPS distinction panels.

For the last five years Janey has been working on a long term documentary project looking at some of the important issues affecting our city centres today.

She describes some of the twists and turns and explains the reason behind the key decisions that have shaped the development of the project.
